

Helping my clients accomplish their real estate goals is a number one priority. Since becoming a Realtor in 1999, I have gained a tremendous amount of knowledge pertaining to my field.

Working with buyers is a pleasure. I have earned the Accredited Buyer Representation (ABR) designation. Understanding the needs and wants of buyers and assisting them in finding the perfect match is very rewarding. Helping their dream become "this is it, my home" is very important.

For sellers, I offer internet marketing. The internet is the gateway to success. The percentage of buyers that have already viewed their prospective new home online before they ever call a realtor is increasing by leaps and bounds. I have earned the ePRO Internet Professional designation. The knowledge gained helps me to promote your home in the best possible way.

I look forward to aiding you in your real estate endeavors.

Sincerely,

Marlene Woodruff
